Summary

I'm a Self-Taught Full-Stack Web Developer who prefers to work as a Back-end Developer,

I have been in the web development field for more than 4 years, got my first project 3 years ago, decided to focus on back-end development especially for Laravel and Vuejs 3 year ago after learning a lot of web technology in backend as well as frontend, now I'm familiar with many web technologies like Python, nodejs , c++ , but specialized in Laravel, Vuejs, and their sidekicks
